REMARKS

25X1 1. [redacted] on 2 November 1953, [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] the bulk of the 1933 class was registered for the 25X1 draft in Czechoslovakia.⁴

25X1 2. From 2 to 7 November 1953, discharges were played by a band to the Cheb (N 51/P 37) railroad station while new recruits arrived. A civilian said that 25X1 most of these recruits belonged to the 1933 class. Deferred members of older classes were also inducted. No announcements on the draft were published in the town prior to the date of induction. 1 and 2

25X1 1. Comment. The last of the 1932 class and the bulk of the 1933 class were apparently inducted in the fall of 1953.

25X1 2. Comment. This is the first report on mass discharges in the fall of 1953. Apart from various indications of an extension of the term of military service, strong portions of the 1929 and 1930 classes would have to be discharged. There is, however, also the possibility that the discharges were soldiers whose discharge was postponed from the spring to the fall of 1953.
